Slated Slated 1 by Teri Terry Format Championship is an exhilarating event that captures the essence of competitive storytelling, bringing together aspiring authors and seasoned writers alike. This championship is centered around the innovative and dystopian world created by Teri Terry in her acclaimed series, "Slated." The event not only celebrates her work but also encourages participants to explore and expand upon the themes of identity, memory, and the complexities of human emotions that are prevalent in her writing.

Overview of the Slated Series

Teri Terry's "Slated" series is a captivating exploration of a futuristic society where the government has the power to erase memories of young criminals, giving them a second chance at life. The protagonist, Kyla, is one such individual who has been "slated" and must navigate her new reality while unraveling the mysteries of her past. The series is known for its thought-provoking content and thrilling plot twists that keep readers on the edge of their seats.

Key Themes in the Slated Series

The series delves into several compelling themes:

1. Identity: The concept of self-discovery is central to the narrative. As characters regain their memories, they grapple with their identities and the consequences of their past actions.
2. Memory and Its Importance: The process of memory alteration raises questions about the essence of being human and the role memories play in shaping who we are.
3. Government Control: The story critiques authoritarian governance and explores the ethical implications of having the power to erase one's past.
4. Friendship and Trust: Relationships play a vital role in the series; the bonds formed between characters highlight the significance of trust in navigating a confusing world.

The Format of the Championship

The Slated Slated 1 by Teri Terry Format Championship is structured to challenge participants in various aspects of storytelling, encouraging creativity and critical thinking. The championship consists of several rounds, each focusing on different elements of writing and storytelling.

Competition Rounds

1. Round 1: Concept Development

- Participants are required to create a unique concept that aligns with the themes of the "Slated" series. This includes developing characters, setting, and a plot outline.

2. Round 2: Short Story Submission

- Contestants must write a short story (up to 3000 words) based on their concept. This round emphasizes narrative structure, character development, and thematic depth.

3. Round 3: Character Exploration

- In this round, participants will create detailed character profiles for their stories. This includes backgrounds, motivations, and how they relate to the overarching themes of the series.

4. Round 4: Pitch Presentation

- Contestants present their story ideas to a panel of judges, simulating a real-world pitch scenario. This tests their ability to communicate their vision clearly and persuasively.

5. Final Round: Live Writing Challenge

- Participants will have a timed session to write a scene based on a prompt given at the event. This round assesses creativity under pressure and the ability to think on one's feet.
