In a faraway kingdom, there lived a beautiful princess named Snow White. She had skin as white as snow, lips as red as blood, and hair as black as ebony. Her beauty was renowned throughout the land, even catching the attention of her stepmother, the Evil Queen. The Queen possessed a magical mirror that she consulted daily, asking, "Mirror, mirror on the wall, who is the fairest of them all?"

Initially, the mirror would respond that the Queen was the most beautiful. However, as Snow White grew older, the mirror's answer changed, declaring Snow White to be the fairest. Enraged by jealousy, the Queen devised a plan to eliminate Snow White.

The Evil Plan

The Queen summoned a huntsman and ordered him to take Snow White into the forest and kill her. However, the huntsman could not bring himself to harm the innocent girl and instead urged her to flee. He told her to run far away and never return to the castle. Snow White, frightened and alone, escaped deeper into the forest.

The Cottage of the Seven Dwarfs

After wandering through the forest, Snow White stumbled upon a small cottage. Exhausted, she entered and fell asleep on one of the seven tiny beds inside. The dwarfs welcomed Snow White into their home, and she agreed to keep house for them in exchange for their protection.

Meanwhile, the Evil Queen discovered through her mirror that Snow White was still alive. Infuriated, she concocted a series of plans to finish the job.

2. The Glass Coffin: The dwarfs found her lifeless body and, heartbroken, placed her in a glass coffin in the forest, believing she was dead. They mourned her and kept watch over her grave.

The Prince's Arrival

One day, a handsome prince happened upon the glass coffin while riding through the forest. He was instantly captivated by Snow White's beauty. Upon learning her story from the dwarfs, he kissed her gently. Miraculously, the kiss broke the spell, and Snow White awoke from her slumber.

The Final Confrontation

Overjoyed, Snow White and the prince decided to return to the castle together. However, the Evil Queen was not done yet. At the wedding, she learned that Snow White was alive, and in a fit of rage, she confronted Snow White and the prince.
