Types of Elections in 2023

Voters in St. Louis County will participate in various elections throughout 2023. Understanding the different types of elections is essential:

1. Local Elections

Local elections typically include races for city council, school board, and other municipal offices. These elections have a direct impact on the community and local governance.

- City Council Elections: Candidates running for city council seats will focus on issues affecting local communities.
- School Board Elections: Candidates will address educational policies, funding, and school safety.

2. State Elections

State elections may involve legislative seats that affect state laws and policies. Key positions may include:

- State Representatives: Candidates will outline their platforms on issues such as healthcare, education, and infrastructure.
- State Senators: State Senate elections can shape Missouri's legislative agenda.

3. Ballot Measures

Voters may also face ballot measures that require a 'yes' or 'no' vote. These measures can include:

- Tax Increases: Proposals for funding public services or infrastructure projects.
- Amendments to Local Charters: Changes in the governance structure of local jurisdictions.

Voting Methods Available in St. Louis County

St. Louis County offers multiple ways for voters to cast their ballots. Understanding these methods can help you choose the best option for your situation:

1. In-Person Voting

Voting in person on Election Day is a popular choice. Remember to:

- Bring a valid photo ID to the polling place.
- Be prepared for potential lines, especially during peak voting hours.

2. Early Voting

Early voting allows you to cast your ballot before Election Day. Benefits include:

- Avoiding crowds and long lines on Election Day.
- Flexibility in choosing a time that works for you.

Early voting locations and hours will be posted on the St. Louis County Board of Elections website.

3. Absentee Voting

If you cannot vote in person, absentee voting is an excellent alternative. Here's what you need to know:

- Requesting an Absentee Ballot: You can request an absentee ballot online, by mail, or in person at your local election office.
- Returning Your Ballot: Completed absentee ballots can be returned by mail or dropped off at designated locations. Ensure they are submitted by the deadline to be counted.

Voter ID Requirements

In Missouri, presenting a valid photo ID is mandatory when voting in person. Acceptable forms of identification include:

- Missouri Driver's License
- U.S. Passport
- Military ID
- Employee ID with Photo

If you do not have an ID, you may still vote by signing a sworn affidavit, but it's best to have proper identification to avoid complications.
