Introduction to Snow White

Once upon a time, in a kingdom far away, there lived a beautiful princess named Snow White. Her skin was as white as snow, her lips were as red as blood, and her hair was as black as ebony. Snow White's mother died when she was young, and her father remarried a woman who was not only beautiful but also vain and wicked.

The Evil Queen

The queen possessed a magical mirror that she would consult regularly. Each day, she would ask, "Mirror, mirror, on the wall, who is the fairest of them all?" The mirror would always respond that she was the fairest, until one fateful day when it declared that Snow White had surpassed her in beauty. Consumed by jealousy, the queen plotted to eliminate her stepdaughter.

The Queen's Plot

To rid herself of Snow White, the queen ordered a huntsman to take the girl into the forest and kill her. However, the huntsman couldn't bring himself to do it and instead urged Snow White to flee and never return to the kingdom. He brought back the heart of a wild animal to present to the queen as proof of Snow White's demise.

Life with the Dwarfs

Snow White found refuge in a small cottage, home to seven dwarfs who worked in the nearby mines. Each dwarf had a unique name and personality:

1. Doc - the leader and the wisest.
2. Grumpy - cynical but ultimately caring.
3. Happy - always cheerful and positive.
4. Sleepy - often tired and ready for a nap.
5. Bashful - shy and timid.
6. Sneezy - prone to sneezing due to allergies.
7. Dopey - the only dwarf who couldn't speak, yet was endearing and lovable.

The dwarfs welcomed Snow White, and she took care of their home, cooking and cleaning. They formed a bond and lived harmoniously, bringing joy into each other's lives.

The Queen's Deception

Meanwhile, the evil queen discovered that Snow White was alive and devised a series of deceptive plans to eliminate her.
