Subject Verb Agreement Worksheet with Answers

Subject-verb agreement is a fundamental aspect of English grammar that dictates how subjects and verbs correspond in number (singular or plural). Proper agreement between the subject and verb is crucial for clarity and coherence in writing and speech. This article will provide a comprehensive overview of subject-verb agreement, along with a variety of worksheets designed to practice this essential skill. Each worksheet will include answers to facilitate learning.

Understanding Subject-Verb Agreement

Subject-verb agreement refers to the grammatical rule that the subject of a sentence must agree with its verb in number. This means that singular subjects take singular verbs, while plural subjects take plural verbs.

Basic Rules of Subject-Verb Agreement

1. Singular and Plural Subjects:

- A singular subject takes a singular verb.
- Example: The dog barks.
- A plural subject takes a plural verb.
- Example: The dogs bark.

2. Compound Subjects:

- When two subjects are joined by 'and,' they typically take a plural verb.
- Example: The cat and dog are playing.
- When subjects are joined by 'or' or 'nor,' the verb should agree with the subject closest to it.
- Example: Either the teacher or the students are responsible.

3. Indefinite Pronouns:

- Some indefinite pronouns are always singular (e.g., each, everyone, someone).
- Example: Everyone is invited to the party.
- Others are always plural (e.g., few, many, several).
- Example: Many were called to the meeting.

4. Collective Nouns:

- Collective nouns may take either singular or plural verbs depending on whether the group is acting as a single unit or as individuals.
- Example: The team wins (singular) vs. The team are arguing among themselves (plural).

5. Titles and Names:

- Titles of books, movies, and other works are considered singular.

- Example: The Chronicles of Narnia is a popular series.
