Introduction to Vegan Meatloaf

Vegan meatloaf is a plant-based alternative to the traditional meatloaf, which typically uses ground meat as its primary ingredient. The beauty of vegan meatloaf lies in its ability to mimic the texture and flavors of meat while using wholesome ingredients that are kinder to the environment and our health. Tabitha Brown's recipe is particularly popular due to its use of simple ingredients, making it accessible for home cooks of all skill levels.

Ingredients for Tabitha Brown Vegan Meatloaf

To make Tabitha Brown's vegan meatloaf, you will need the following ingredients:

Base Ingredients

1. 1 cup cooked lentils (green or brown)
2. 1 cup rolled oats (gluten-free if necessary)
3. 1 cup finely chopped vegetables (such as bell peppers, onions, and carrots)
4. 1/2 cup breadcrumbs (can be gluten-free)
5. 1/4 cup nutritional yeast (for a cheesy flavor)
6. 2 tablespoons ground flaxseed (mixed with 6 tablespoons water, let sit for 5 minutes)
7. 1 tablespoon soy sauce (or tamari for gluten-free)
8. 1 tablespoon mustard (Dijon or yellow)
9. 1 teaspoon garlic powder
10. 1 teaspoon onion powder
11. 1 teaspoon smoked paprika
12. Salt and pepper to taste

For the Glaze

1. 1/4 cup ketchup
2. 1 tablespoon maple syrup (or brown sugar)
3. 1 teaspoon apple cider vinegar

Preparation Steps

Creating Tabitha Brown's vegan meatloaf is a straightforward process that involves mixing the ingredients, shaping the loaf, and baking it to perfection. Follow the steps below to ensure a delicious outcome.

Step 1: Prepare the Lentils

1. Rinse 1 cup of lentils under cold water.
2. Place the lentils in a pot with three cups of water.
3. Bring to a boil, then reduce the heat and simmer for about 20-25 minutes until tender. Drain any excess water.

Step 2: Preheat the Oven

Preheat your oven to 350°F (175°C). This will ensure that your meatloaf cooks evenly.

Step 3: Cook the Vegetables

1. In a skillet, add a splash of vegetable broth or water.
2. Sauté the chopped vegetables (bell peppers, onions, and carrots) until they are soft and fragrant, about 5-7 minutes.

Step 4: Combine the Ingredients

In a large mixing bowl, combine the following:

- Cooked lentils
- Rolled oats
- Sautéed vegetables
- Breadcrumbs
- Nutritional yeast
- Flaxseed mixture
- Soy sauce
- Mustard
- Garlic powder
- Onion powder
- Smoked paprika
- Salt and pepper

Use a fork or your hands to mix everything together until well combined. The mixture should be moist but hold together when shaped.

Step 5: Shape the Loaf

Transfer the mixture to a loaf pan, pressing it down firmly to create an even shape. You can also shape it freeform on a baking sheet lined with parchment paper if you prefer a rustic look.

Step 6: Prepare the Glaze

In a small bowl, whisk together the ketchup, maple syrup, and apple cider vinegar to create the glaze. Spread this mixture evenly over the top of the meatloaf.

Step 7: Bake the Meatloaf

Place the loaf in the preheated oven and bake for about 45-55 minutes, or until the edges are golden and the loaf is firm to the touch.

Step 8: Cool and Serve

Once baked, remove the meatloaf from the oven and allow it to cool for about 10 minutes before slicing. This will help it hold its shape. Serve warm with your favorite sides, such as mashed potatoes, green beans, or a fresh salad.

Tips for Making the Perfect Vegan Meatloaf

- Experiment with Flavors: Feel free to add your favorite herbs and spices to enhance the flavor. Italian seasoning, thyme, or even a dash of cayenne pepper can add a unique twist.
- Add Protein: For an extra protein boost, consider adding cooked quinoa or chickpeas to the mixture.
- Storage: Leftover meatloaf can be stored in an airtight container in the refrigerator for up to 5 days. It also freezes well for up to three months.
- Serving Suggestions: Pair the meatloaf with a tangy coleslaw or a side of roasted vegetables for a complete meal.
