Origins and Historical Background

The Ashtar Command members intl starseed network traces its roots back to the mid-20th century when reports of extraterrestrial contact and spiritual messages began to emerge among certain spiritual communities. The name "Ashtar Command" is derived from Ashtar Sheran, a purported extraterrestrial being who is said to lead a fleet of interstellar ships dedicated to assisting Earth's spiritual evolution. These early communications were often conveyed through channeling, a practice that involves receiving messages from higher-dimensional entities.

Initially, the Ashtar Command was perceived as a cosmic rescue mission during times of planetary crisis. Over time, this concept evolved into a broader spiritual movement emphasizing peace, unity, and the awakening of starseed souls. The international dimension of the network developed as people from various countries embraced the teachings and formed interconnected groups to share experiences and coordinate their spiritual work.
