Overview of the Lightbringer Series

Brent Weeks' Lightbringer series consists of five books, with The Black Prism being the first. Set in a world where light is the source of power, the story revolves around the manipulation of this light through a process called "chromaturgy."

The Magic System: Chromaturgy

One of the most striking features of The Black Prism is its unique approach to magic. Chromaturgy allows individuals, known as "drafters," to manipulate light and color to create powerful effects. Here are some key aspects of this magic system:

- Green: Associated with growth and healing.
- Blue: Symbolizes intellect and communication.
- Orange: Tied to speed and agility.

- Yellow: Represents clarity and enlightenment.
- White: The purest form of light, extremely powerful but rare.

2. Drafting:

- Drafters must draw light from the environment, which can be physically taxing and dangerous. Over-drafting can lead to severe consequences, including death.

3. Prisms:

- The Prisms are the most powerful drafter in the world, capable of manipulating multiple colors. The protagonist, Gavin Guile, holds this title and serves as a leader and protector of the realm.
