This article will explore the key concepts covered in the Crash Course US History 34, providing detailed answers to the accompanying worksheet and offering insights into the historical context and implications of the New Deal.

Understanding the New Deal: A Historical Overview

The New Deal was implemented between 1933 and 1939, during a time of unprecedented economic turmoil. The stock market crash of 1929 had led to widespread unemployment, bank failures, and a collapse of consumer spending. The primary goals of the New Deal were to provide immediate economic relief, create jobs, and stimulate economic recovery.

Key Elements of the New Deal

The New Deal consisted of several key programs and reforms, categorized into two main phases:

1. First New Deal (1933-1934): Focused on immediate relief and recovery.
 - Emergency Banking Relief Act: Closed banks for inspections and reformed the banking system.
 - Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC): Provided jobs in natural resource conservation.
 - Agricultural Adjustment Act (AAA): Aimed to raise crop prices by controlling production.
2. Second New Deal (1935-1938): Focused on long-term reforms.
 - Social Security Act: Established a safety net for the elderly and unemployed.
 - Works Progress Administration (WPA): Created millions of jobs through public works projects.
 - National Labor Relations Act (Wagner Act): Strengthened workers' rights to unionize and bargain collectively.

The Impact of the New Deal on American Society

The New Deal had a profound impact on American society, altering the relationship between the government and its citizens. Here are some of the key effects:

- Economic Recovery: While the New Deal did not end the Great Depression, it laid the groundwork for recovery by stabilizing banks and creating jobs.
- Social Safety Nets: The introduction of Social Security and unemployment insurance established a precedent for government involvement in economic welfare.

- Labor Rights: The New Deal fostered a more favorable environment for unions, leading to increased labor rights and protections.
