

united methodist advent readings for 2014

United Methodist Advent Readings for 2014 serve as a spiritual guide for congregations and individuals alike during the sacred season leading up to Christmas. The Advent season, which begins four Sundays before Christmas, is a time of preparation, reflection, and anticipation of the coming of Christ. For the United Methodist Church, this period is marked by specific scripture readings, prayers, and themes that help believers focus on the meaning of Advent.

Understanding Advent in the United Methodist Tradition

Advent is more than just a countdown to Christmas; it is a liturgical season that invites believers to prepare their hearts and minds for the celebration of Jesus' birth. In the United Methodist Church, Advent is characterized by themes of hope, peace, joy, and love. Each week focuses on a different aspect, culminating in the celebration of Christ's arrival on Christmas Day.

The Significance of the Advent Wreath

An essential element of Advent worship in the United Methodist tradition is the Advent wreath. Traditionally, the wreath is circular, symbolizing eternity, and is adorned with four candles surrounding a central white candle.

- The Four Candles: Each of the four outer candles represents one of the four weeks of Advent, each corresponding to a specific theme:
 - Hope (1st week)
 - Peace (2nd week)
 - Joy (3rd week)
 - Love (4th week)
- The Christ Candle: The white candle in the center is lit on Christmas Eve or Christmas Day, symbolizing the birth of Christ, the Light of the World.

Advent Readings for 2014

The United Methodist Church provides a lectionary that outlines scripture readings for each Sunday of Advent. For the year 2014, the readings correspond to the Revised Common Lectionary, which is widely used across many Christian denominations.

Week 1: Hope (November 30, 2014)

- Scripture Readings:
 - Isaiah 64:1-9: A cry for God's presence and intervention.
 - 1 Corinthians 1:3-9: Paul speaks of the grace and strength found in Christ.
 - Mark 13:24-37: Jesus encourages vigilance in awaiting His return.
- Theme Reflection: The first week of Advent focuses on hope, reminding believers of the expectations of Christ's coming and the hope that arises in times of despair. The readings emphasize the importance of being awake and alert to God's work in the world.

Week 2: Peace (December 7, 2014)

- Scripture Readings:
 - Isaiah 40:1-11: A message of comfort and preparation for the Lord's coming.
 - 2 Peter 3:8-15a: The promise of the Lord's return and the call for holiness.
 - Mark 1:1-8: The ministry of John the Baptist, preparing the way for Jesus.
- Theme Reflection: The second week focuses on peace, as believers are called to prepare their hearts for the coming of Christ. The readings highlight the importance of repentance and the necessity of making a pathway for the Lord.

Week 3: Joy (December 14, 2014)

- Scripture Readings:
 - Isaiah 61:1-4, 8-11: A proclamation of good news and joy.
 - 1 Thessalonians 5:16-24: A call to rejoice always and live in harmony.
 - John 1:6-8, 19-28: John the Baptist's testimony about Jesus.
- Theme Reflection: The third week of Advent is marked by joy, as the faithful celebrate the nearness of Christ's arrival. These readings invite believers to rejoice in the good news and to share that joy with others.

Week 4: Love (December 21, 2014)

- Scripture Readings:
- 2 Samuel 7:1-11, 16: God's promise to David and his lineage.
- Romans 16:25-27: The revelation of the mystery of Christ.
- Luke 1:26-38: The announcement of Jesus' birth to Mary.

- Theme Reflection: The final week of Advent emphasizes love, epitomized in God's gift of His Son. The readings reflect on the depth of God's love for humanity and His desire for a relationship with His creation.

Advent Practices and Traditions

In addition to scripture readings, the United Methodist Church encourages various practices and traditions during Advent to enhance spiritual growth and community engagement.

Advent Devotional Resources

Many churches provide devotional materials to guide individuals and families through the Advent season. These resources often include daily scripture readings, reflections, and prayers.

Advent Services

Special Advent worship services are often held, incorporating music, prayers, and the lighting of the Advent wreath. These services create a communal atmosphere of anticipation and reflection.

Community Outreach

Advent is also a time for service and outreach. Many United Methodist congregations engage in charitable activities, such as food drives, toy collections, or community service, to reflect the love of Christ in tangible ways.
