Worksheet Reflexive Verbs Answer Key

Reflexive verbs play a crucial role in many languages, particularly in Spanish and French, where they are commonly used to indicate actions that the subject performs on itself. Understanding these verbs and how to use them correctly is essential for language learners. This article provides a comprehensive guide on reflexive verbs, including their forms, uses, and an answer key for a typical worksheet designed to practice these verbs.

Understanding Reflexive Verbs

Reflexive verbs are verbs that indicate that the subject and the object of the verb are the same. In other words, the subject is doing something to itself. In English, reflexive verbs are often used with reflexive pronouns like "myself," "yourself," "himself," "herself," "itself," "ourselves," "yourselves," and "themselves."

Examples of Reflexive Verbs

1. English:

- I wash myself.
- She prepares herself for the exam.

2. Spanish:

- Me lavo (I wash myself).
- Te preparas (You prepare yourself).

3. French:

- Je me lave (I wash myself).
- Tu te prépares (You prepare yourself).

Formation of Reflexive Verbs

Reflexive verbs are typically formed by combining a verb with a reflexive pronoun. The reflexive pronoun corresponds to the subject of the sentence and changes depending on the person.
