Understanding Sentence Structures

Before diving into worksheets, it is crucial to understand what compound and complex sentences are.

What are Compound Sentences?

A compound sentence consists of two or more independent clauses joined by a coordinating conjunction (for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so). Each independent clause can stand alone as a complete sentence.

Example of a compound sentence:

- I wanted to go for a walk, but it started to rain.

What are Complex Sentences?

A complex sentence contains one independent clause and at least one dependent clause. The dependent clause cannot stand alone as a complete sentence and often begins with subordinating conjunctions such as because, since, when, although, or while.

Example of a complex sentence:

- Although it was raining, I decided to go for a walk.
