Game Play Instructions

Now that the game is set up, it's time to dive into the gameplay. The objective of Zombie Opoly is to be the last player remaining by outsmarting your opponents and avoiding the dreaded zombies.

Starting the Game

The first player rolls the dice and moves their token the corresponding number of spaces on the board. Players continue taking turns in a clockwise direction.

Landing on Spaces

When landing on a space, players have a few options depending on the type of space:

1. Property Spaces: If you land on an unowned property, you may choose to buy it for the listed price. If you don't wish to buy, the property goes to auction among the other players.
2. Chance and Community Chest Spaces: Draw a card from the respective deck and follow the instructions. These cards can either benefit or hinder your game, so be strategic.

3. Zombie Spaces: Landing on a Zombie space means you must follow the instructions provided on that space, which could involve losing money, losing a turn, or facing other challenges.

4. Safe Haven Spaces: These spaces are beneficial and may give players immunity from zombies or other advantages.

Buying Properties and Building

Once you own a property, you can build structures on it to increase its value. Here's how it works:

- Building Houses: You can build houses on your properties to increase rent. You must build evenly across your properties; for example, you cannot build a second house on a property until every property in that color set has one house.
- Building Zombies: Some properties allow you to build zombie fortifications. These can provide protection against other players landing on your space and can be used to negotiate with other players.

Trading and Negotiation

Players are encouraged to trade properties and negotiate deals to strengthen their positions. Here are some tips for successful trading:

- Assess the value of properties: Understand what you need versus what the other player needs.
- Be open to negotiations: Sometimes, giving a little can lead to a better advantage in the long run.
- Utilize the Zombie Dollars wisely: Cash can be just as valuable as properties.

Challenges and Zombie Interaction

In Zombie Opoly, players must navigate various challenges that can arise from zombies and other players.

Zombie Attacks

If you land on a Zombie space, you may face a zombie attack. The instructions on the space will dictate the consequences, which may include:

- Paying a fee
- Losing a turn
- Returning to the starting point

Dealing with Other Players

Players can also interact with one another in various ways. For example:

- Forming Alliances: Players can work together to take down a stronger opponent.
- Sabotaging Others: Use cards or strategies to hinder other players, such as forcing them to pay fees or lose properties.

Ending the Game

The game continues until only one player remains. This player is declared the winner of Zombie Opoly. Here are a few ways the game can end:

- A player goes bankrupt.
- Players agree to end the game after a set amount of time, tallying the value of properties and cash.
- An agreed-upon number of rounds is played, with the player holding the most Zombie Dollars at the end being declared the winner.

Strategies for Success

To thrive in Zombie Opoly, players should consider several strategies:

1. Focus on Property Development: Aim to acquire complete color sets to build houses and increase rent.
